

The following diagram was provided by our colleagues at American Telecare. It was designed for use with a home health system to enable a patient to communicate with a practitioner as they placed the stethoscope on the appropriate location. This is a great tool which enables a practitioner to direct the patient's use and placement of the chest piece on the electronic stethoscope in order to hear the best heart sounds possible.

Stethoscope Front and Back Diagram

A. Front

Stethoscope Front and Back Diagram

B. Back

